WSRA Conference 2021

Virtual Format | May 24-25, 2021

About WSRA

The Washington State Recycling Association (WSRA) provides leadership and education that fosters the expansion, diversity and economic vitality of recycling in support of sustainable resource management.

One of the oldest and strongest state recycling organizations in the country, WSRA leads the state recycling industry through networking, public education, monitoring legislation, and professional development.

Students Invited to Apply for Scholarship

WSRA welcomes students interested in the recycling industry to attend our Annual Conference and Trade Show, May 24-25, 2021. Because of meeting restrictions imposed during COVID-19, and to protect our members who are essential service providers in Washington, the 2021 conference will be held virtually. Undergraduate or graduate students age 18 or older who are currently enrolled in college, university, or trade school, or recently graduated (fall/winter of 2021) are encouraged to apply for scholarships to attend the conference as student guests.

Scholarships include full registration, allowing students to attend educational sessions, workshops and networking events. Students will also learn about internships and employment opportunities from WSRA member organizations, be mentored during the conference by a WSRA board member and receive a one-year individual membership to the WSRA in exchange for active engagement in one of the organization's committees.

How to apply: Submit the electronic application available at www.wsra.net, including an essay describing how your efforts in recycling, waste prevention and zero waste living have contributed to the mission of WSRA, and/or how you expect to contribute to this mission in the future. Click here for the application.

Deadline: Please submit the online application by midnight April 30, 2021.

Questions: Contact WSRA at 206-622-8425 or recycle@wsra.net.
